

Preschool Art

Going to your first day of preschool can be an intimidating experience. The building is huge compared to your home and its easy to feel lost and afraid. The preschool at First Lutheran has a creative way to help their preschoolers comfortable finding their new room.

