

Bible Gateway

<http://bible.gospelcom.net>

Deacon Sil Gavin's Home Page

<http://www.deaconsil.com>

Deacon Sil's page is WAY worth the $40 annual price. For it you get quite a few of the other resources listed below, all sorted according the lectionary text. It is a Roman Catholic man who organizes it, but he include all the varied lectionaries and does an OUTSTANDING job of it. This site is mostly other sermons, but does include illustration sites, commentaries and a few odds'n'ends. By the way, if you pay for a membership to this site, please mention that I steered you there and I will receive a discount on my renewal.

Worship That Works/Selected Sermons

<http://www.dfms.org/worship-that-works/>

Desperate Preacher's Site

<http://www.javacasa.com/dps/preacher.htm>

You can get some limited resources free of charge at this Methodist site, but you get lots more for the $30 annual fee. It is helpful to remember that Methodists are "out of step" with the Lutheran lectionary for a chunk of the year...

Resources for Leaders

<http://www.worship.on.ca/sec3.html#lectio>

Sermon Central

<http://www.sermoncentral.com>

Revised Common Lectionary

<http://www.montreal.anglican.org/comment/>
Trinity Evangelical Lutheran

<http://www.luther95.net/TELC-JPA/sermons98.html>
Sermon Illustrations

<http://www.sermonillustrations.com/index.html>
Sermon and Sermon - Lectionary Resources

<http://www.spirit-net.ca/sermon.html>
Also known as: KirShalom; Richard Fairchild does a fantastic job with this very comprehensive site. You have to look at it! There is a place on the site to register, but it is only so that you get a notice when the page is updated. The fabulous thing about this resource is that it is a listing of links that are arranged by theme as well as Richard Fairchild's sermon and liturgy planning well in advance of the lectionary date. Check this out!

Exegetical Notes (Brian Stoffregen)

<http://www.crossmarks.com/brian/brian.htm>
Crossmark Christian Resources

<http://www.crossmarks.com>
The Text This Week

<http://www.textweek.com/>
Lift Up Your Hearts/ELCIC

<http://www.worship.on.ca/>
Join Hands

http://www.joinhands.com/mainmenu_1.taf
Much of this site is by subscription, though parts are free. You can sample much of it without subscribing.

Homiletics Online

<http://www.homileticsonline.com>

A subscription site, but you can get samples before you pay to join.

Ecunet.org

<http://www.ecunet.org>

A subscription site - really inexpensive!!!! - that includes "...SermonShop, Gospel Notes for Next Sunday, ProperTalk, Sermon Ideas for Children, Bottom Drawer, and dozens of other meetings which support clergy and Christian educators!"

Ecunet Lite

<http://www.ecunet.org/gettingonecupage.html>

Ecunet is now available in a "lite" version : This is free and gives you access to Sermonshop and Sermonshop Sermons - both excellent sites. Sermonshop is a discussion and "divided" into a separate page for each sunday. Sermonshop Sermons is for full text sermon postings without discussion.